

Christmas story in Bucovina, 23-27 December

5 days / 4 nights

Bucovina is one of the most beautiful regions in our country, known especially for the fascinating landscapes, for the monasteries and painted churches, included in the UNESCO World Heritage, for the picturesque villages and its traditions. In Bucovina, Christmas is the holiday that is kept, perhaps, better than in other places, without major deviations from tradition. You are always surrounded by wonderful and welcoming people, warmth, harmony, delicious dishes and wonderful places.
